

Leong Guan Food Manufacturer Pte Ltd

Lasting Goodness

LG Foods is a brand by Leong Guan Food Manufacturer, Singapore's largest fresh noodle manufacturer, specialising in noodles and beancurd products.

Anchored in food science, the company has developed export-ready long shelf-life fresh noodles and beancurd without the use of preservatives.

The brand's current product range consists of fresh Singaporean Noodles, soy beancurd products, dumpling wrappers, international noodles such as fresh Japanese Ramen, Italian Pasta, Hong Kong Style Wonton Mee, including specialty noodles such as low-GI, vegetarian and gluten-free noodles.

Their latest offerings include ready-to-eat microwavable meals with authentic Asian flavours, providing a swift dining option. They also developed a range of food kits with fresh noodles, containing all the ingredients and instructions, facilitating the preparation of quality meals at home.

Proudly made in Singapore, Leong Guan is a trusted partner in the local food service industry, supplying to hawkers, Michelin guide accredited restaurants as well as customising recipes for chain eateries. Their 'lg' brand products can also be found in local supermarket chains such as FairPrice, Sheng Siong and Prime supermarkets.

In addition, LG Foods is also available in Southeast Asia, New Zealand, Australia, UK and the US.
